April, 2023

We are working to build an open quantum ecosystem.
We offer free quantum workshops, courses, and internships

QUANTUM SCIENCE DAYS

Quantum Science Days is an annual, international, and virtual scientific conference organized by QWorld (Association) to provide opportunities to the quantum community to present and discuss their research results at all levels (from short projects to thesis work to research publications), and to get to know each other.

This year we are organizing the third edition of QSD on May 29-31, 2023. In the previous editions (QSD2021 & QSD2022), we hosted 60 contributed talks and 14 invited speakers including James Wootton (IBM Zurich), Barry Sanders (University of Calgary), Stacey Jeffery (CWI, QuSoft, & WIQD), Elham Kashefi (University of Edinburgh, CNRS Sorbonne Universite, & VeriQloud Ltd), and Nathan Shammah (Unitary Fund).

Last year, over 650 people from all around the world registered for our event. We hosted 480 unique participants during the zoom sessions (day 1 - 360 users, day 2 - 256 users, and day 3 - 216 users). At the same time, more than 350 participants joined our dedicated Discord server.

Here are statistics about the participants:

Researcher/Student

Researcher	32,7
Graduate student.....	37,6
Undergrad student.....	22,8
High school student.....	3,0
Teacher	2,0
Others.....	2,0

Working on/researching some quantum topics

Yes.....	53,5
No, but I plan to involve with some quantum topics	27,7
No, but I am interested in learning some quantum topics	16,0
No, but I am happy to learn about new stuffs	2,0

THEY TALK ABOUT US

We collected more than 100 feedback responses. Here are some anonymous quotes about QSD2022:

“Thanks for sharing the science!”

“The event was amazing and really opened my eyes over lots of topics in quantum computing.”

“You’re doing amazing work, please keep continuing this and surely we will make a great Quantum Computing community.”

“It is accessible to all the people around the world. Main thing is, one who wants to learn about Quantum technology can just sign up for the application form and turn on notification. They can easily attend events and conferences like this.”

“It was an informative event with coverage of different topics.”

“I don’t know how to thank the organizing team and I am really grateful to the lovely QWorld team.”

“Most of the talks I have attended were new to me so it aroused my curiosity about how much quantum technology has advanced. Now I want more.”

“Great chairing of the Q&A and onboarding on Discord. QWorld team you rock!”

“I think QWorld is a truly diverse and inclusive group - in terms of cultural backgrounds, professional expertise and gender! It’s amazing!!”

INVITED SPEAKERS

This year, we will host 10 invited speakers including Francesco Petruccione (University of Stellenbosch, University of KwaZulu-Natal, NITheCS, South Africa), Julia Cramer (Universiteit Leiden), Monika Aidelsburger (Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München), and Yanzhu Chen (Virginia Tech).

Moreover, we will have thematic session “Building an Open Quantum Ecosystem” hosting several talks on successful quantum programs or events:

- The World Quantum Day – 14 April
Yasser Omar (PQI – Portuguese Quantum Institute & IST, University of Lisbon)
- Qiskit Fall Fest: Building a Quantum Community With a Student-First Approach
Brian Ingmanson (IBM Quantum)
- Quantum Explorers: A Game-based Approach to Quantum Education
Radha Pyari Sandhir (IBM Quantum)
- The QCousins program – Building a Global Network of Quantum Computing Groups
Paweł Gora (QWorld)
- QHack, the One-of-a-kind Quantum Hackathon
Jen Dodd (Xanadu)
- Womanium Quantum & Entrepreneurship – Igniting the Quantum Leaders of Tomorrow
Marlou Slot & Prachi Vakharia (Womanium)
- Latvian Quantum Initiative
Andris Ambainis (University of Latvia)

SPONSORSHIP PROPOSAL

Based on sponsorship, we will also have a thematic “Industrial Session” hosting the talks by gold or silver level sponsors.
